

Please stop the skuttling of XOXO through the actions of the Board, reselling the company to themselves without any consideration to shareholders. We built this company, now they take it away with no payment to us. They win everything, we get nothing